Walteria News Notes

Torrance Fire Department, Engine Company 2, regular and call men, gave a turkey dinner Monday, May 22. The dinner was all prepared and served by the men, which was a decided treat for the ladies. Special guests of the evening were Chief and Mrs. J. J. Benner of Torrance. Those present from Engine Company 2 were Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kettering, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Langum, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Skidmore, Frank Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crowther. Did the men wash the dishes, too?

Mrs. T. M. Kirk 3830 Pacific Coast highway, attended a Beta Sigma Phi breakfast at Ivan's Restaurant in Lynwood Sunday. Mrs. Kirk was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dale Shellaas, of Compton.

Mrs. Berle Conner, 22891 Ocean Avenue, was called to Oklahoma City last week to help care for her sister who is critically ill. Mr. Conner has just returned from Kansas City, where he attended the funeral of his mother.

The Walteria Teenage Club resumed Friday night dances on May 26. Frank Carpenter, recreation director, announces that a leader has been secured.

A birthday dinner was enjoyed Saturday, May 20, by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gordon and daughters, Colleen and Maureen, 24027 Neece Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Snow and children, Mary and Joe, Jr., 24239 Ocean Avenue. The dinner was held in honor of Miss Colleen Gordon, who celebrated her 13th birthday, and Mr. J. J. Snow. The evening was spent playing canasta and watching television.

Mrs. Virginia Lou Taylor and children, Sandra and Georgia, of Lawndale, visited Tuesday with Mrs. W. D. McGlasson of Los Codona Avenue. Little Sandy has appeared on television programs several times.

Mrs. Evelyn Spaulding, 24443 Madison Street, has been confined to her home with illness the past two weeks. At this time, she is feeling somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Harline of Lohi visited Mrs. Lorine Harline, 24263 Los Codona Avenue. Their son, Keith, was with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Lee of Berkeley are the parents of a daughter, born May 11. The Lees also have a son, Larry, 20 months of age. The Lees are former residents of Walteria.

The Fidels Club met at the Ward street home of Mrs. Crowe Thursday, May 25. Among those present were Mrs. Loris Harline, Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Getchel, Mrs. Hamilton of Lomita, Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Sage, and the hostess, Mrs. Crowe. Bingo was played. Mrs. Harline winning the first prize; Mrs. Crowe won second prize, and Mrs. Getchel won the consolation prize. Pot luck luncheon was served.

Monday, May 22, was the sixth birthday of Andy Moshes of 4095 Wilmington Street. A party was given in his honor by his mother. Those attending were Pamela and Linda Martz, Linda Sells, Mrs. Laura Wray, Amanda and Mary Ann Zulkes of Walteria; Clifford Jensen, of Redondo Beach; cousins, Bill and Barbara Sturgill, Susie Anderson; Aunts, Louise Anderson, Ina Sommersell and Iola Sturgill; grandmothers, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Corbett; and Andy's teacher, Mrs. Marian Williams. Andy received many fine gifts, but his pride and joy is a complete Hopalong Cassidy outfit. Pictures were taken of the group, and refreshments were served. After the children's party, the ladies enjoyed a bridge party.

Mrs. W. E. Ehlers of Paso Robles is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Ziske of Adolph Street. She plans to stay about two weeks.

Pfc. Charles M. Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Combs, 24001 Neece Avenue, left Monday, May 22, for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he will continue his military training.

Mrs. Coe and Mrs. Gallop of Los Angeles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt of Adolph Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whittington of Neece Avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Crawford of Lomita, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Code and children, Katherine and Don of Wilmington, left Friday on a four-day fishing trip to Convict Lake, in the High Sierras.

The regular meeting of Pack 240C, Cub Scouts, was held April 15 in the Walteria Recreation Hall. The theme was a County Fair. Prize for the best cake was awarded to Mrs. Mollie Montgomery.
